178/13:Application No 51/13/00029 : The sting of 10 mobile homes for seasonal occupation by agricultural workers and storage of unoccupied mobile homes out of season and retention of WC building on land at Barton Farm Perry Green

The Parish Council response as sent to District Council planning officer
The Wembdon Parish Council planning committee met last night to consider the above application and decided unanimously to support the proposal on the grounds of appropriate development and with the growth and enterprise associated with it.

179/13: Application No 51/13/00028: Formation of access on land adjoining Cokerhurst Barn Wembdon Hill

The Parish Council response as sent to the District Council planning officer

The Wembdon Parish Council met last night to consider the above application. The Planning committee decided to object to the proposal on safety and highway concerns previously raised on the basis that adequate access already exists to this site in addition it is felt that the new proposal impedes the historical value together with downgrading the Street view. The Parish Council also urge the district planning authority to order the original hedge be re instated on this site

The meeting concluded at 10pm
